Reconnaissance Team Leaders Course

- Purpose: The purpose of the Reconnaissance Team Leader Course is to provide the students with the required knowledge and skills needed to perform the duties of a Reconnaissance Team Leader.

- Task List:
  - 2000 Level:
    - Small unit training
    - Recon Mission Planning
    - Ground Recon Operations
    - Amphibious operations

- Scope: This course emphasizes planning, briefing, and leading teams in patrolling, ground reconnaissance, and amphibious operations. The course combines collaborative learning and teaching methodologies that focus on delivering training and education in the areas of mission planning, communications, weapons employment, planning and implementing training, reconnaissance reports, surveillance techniques, patrolling, and amphibious team operations. Upon successful completion of this course, the students are capable of performing the duties of a Reconnaissance Team Leader within a Reconnaissance Battalion.

- Course Length: 7 Weeks / 48 Training Days